

Fall Internship Positions with Community GroundWorks' Youth Programs

Community GroundWorks is seeking several additional interns this fall to work at its Goodman Youth Farm and Troy Kids' Garden sites. Interns will work with visiting school groups, leading hands-on organic gardening, culinary arts, and environmental education activities. Positions begin September 1 and end on October 29. Interns will work 1-4 days per week, depending on availability. Time slots include:

- Tuesdays, 8:00-1:00 (Goodman Youth Farm)
- Tuesdays, 12:30-5:30pm (Goodman Youth Farm)
- Wednesdays, 12:30-5:30 (Troy Kids' Garden)
- Thursdays, 8:00-1:00 (Goodman Youth Farm)

Both paid and volunteer positions are available. Preference for paid positions will be given to applicants who are available to work multiple days per week. College Credit is available for our internships, and we are happy to help you complete hour requirements and paperwork.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. To apply, please send resume, cover letter, and available shift hours to Melissa Hayes (crewleader@communitygroundworks.org)
